

Shelter page 59
Driftwood House, California

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter pages 110-111
Temple Island, Bali, photographed by Kevin Kelly

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter page 102
House of the Bajau people, Manado, northern Sulawesi Island, Indonesia, photographed by Yoshio Komatsu

Builders of the Pacific Coast page 38
Stefan Doll's House, built by Lloyd House, British Columbia, Canada

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter page 29
The first 54' tricentric yurt at the Mountain Institute, Cherry Grove, West Virginia, USA, 1976

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter page 48
Zome with diamond motif in meadow, Pyrenees, France

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter page 151
Frank's home (made by him of local spruce and sheet metal for $35), Nova Scotia, Canada

Builders of the Pacific Coast pages 128-129
Gazebo for Charlotte Disher's House by Jan Janzen, Vancouver Island, Canada

Shelter page 9
Ancient Latvian summer kitchen 'Slietenis', Latvian Ethnographic Museum, Riga, Latvia (former USSR)

SHELTERS

IMAGES FROM SHELTER PUBLICATIONS

The images come from the Shelter Publications which are displayed on the reading tables in the exhibition. The list goes roughly left to right along the wall, top to bottom. By following the title of the publication and the page references given before the building descriptions below, you can find out more about them in the books.

Builders of the Pacific Coast page 99
Woodshed by Peter Buckland at Cougar Annie's, British Columbia, Canada

Builders of the Pacific Coast page 144
Houseboat designed by Michael McNamara and built by and for Hugh MacDonald, Pacific Coast, Canada, 1974

Builders of the Pacific Coast pages 98-99
Woodshed made of split cedar by Peter Buckland at Cougar Annie's (temperate rainforest field studies centre in an area named after a former inhabitant who was a legendary pioneer lady, Ada Annie Rae Arthur), British Columbia, Canada

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter page 28
Bill Coperthwaite's yurt in the Maine woods, USA

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter page 215
Stone building, northern Italy photographed by Werner R Blaser 1977 for his book 'The Rock is My Home'

Tiny Homes: Simple Shelter page 90
Montana Mobile Cabins, Kip and Dawdi Keim's business based in Whitehall, Montana, USA

Tiny Homes: Simple Shelter page 170
'The Flying Tortoise', 1977 Bedford bus built in New Zealand by Hawke Coach-builders and converted into a home by Keith Levy in 2007

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter pages 114-115

Hallig Habel (photographed at period of storm flooding) farmhouse built on artificial mound on a sandbank/island just above sea level, north Germany, photographed 1980s

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter page 42

Funky house, France

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter page 98

Small barn used for vegetable storage designed by Shuhei Hasado, Yamanashi Prefecture, Japan, photographed by Yoshio Komatsu

Shelter pg118

Drop City, first American hippie dome community, outskirts of Trinidad, Colorado, USA

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter page 29

Helen Nearing's yurt at Harborside, Maine, USA

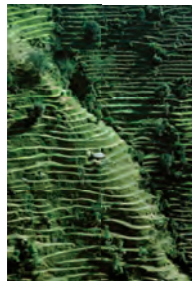

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter page 148

Barn, Cape Breton Island, Nova Scotia, Canada

Builders of the Pacific Coast page 256

Driftwood beach shelter by anonymous builder, Pacific Coast, USA

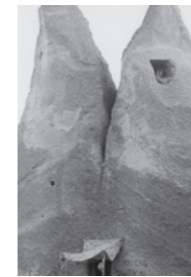

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter page 109

Hut used for day shelter on crop terraces, Himalayas, Nepal, photographed by Kevin Kelly

Shelter II page 204

Polyurethane foam plastic dome donated by German chemical firm as a temporary home for earthquake victims, Gediz, Turkey, 1970

Shelter page 98

Dwelling and storage carved from tufa rock, Cappadocia, Turkey

Shelter page 124,

'Raw Stuff', ferro-cement dome built by Bill Bennett, central Pennsylvania, USA, 1972

Tiny Homes: Simple Shelter page 210

Float Cabin built for Margy and Wayne Lutz, Powell Lake, British Columbia, Canada

Home Work: Handbuilt Shelter page 214

Stone building, northern Italy photographed by architect/writer/photographer Werner R Blaser, 1977

Builders of the Pacific Coast page 34

Hornby Island Community Center, built with Lloyd House, British Columbia, Canada

Shelter II page 205

Plastic dome temporary home for earthquake victims with porch added by occupants, Gediz, Turkey, 1970

Shelter page 103

Banani, a cliff-debris village of the Dogon people of Timbuktu

Tiny Homes: Simple Shelter page 180

Boat built by Jay Nelson at the JB Blunk artist residency in Inverness, Point Reyes Peninsula, California